Contractor Guideline
MiLoG und AEntG

Contractor Confirmation
Revision 4

The above-mentioned provisions of the Contractor Guideline are complementary part of the contract (receipt of your order confirmation). They also apply to subcontractors and hauliers.
In addition to a prohibition from entering the premises, culpable violations can also have far-reaching consequences (compensation for damages, termination of cooperation, etc.).

The contractor is obliged to inform its employees of this Contractor Guideline, to instruct them on the subject matter and to encourage employees to strictly follow it.
With his/her legally binding signature, the contractor confirms compliance with the Contractor Guideline Revision 3. until receipt of a new revision.

Statement on compliance with the minimum wage law (MiLoG) and the posting of workers law (AEntG).

The contractor undertakes to observe compliance with the minimum wage law in the valid version and particularly the timely payment of the legal minimum wage.
The contractor ensures also that a subcontractor commissioned by him undertakes to do the same.

This Guideline must be signed and returned to the client.
